

The poster features a stylized illustration of a building facade with several tall, narrow windows and a central entrance. The building is rendered in shades of brown and tan. Above the building, a large, bright orange sun or moon is set against a blue sky with a gradient. The title 'FIVE EYE ON LLA' is prominently displayed in the center. The word 'FIVE' is in a large, blue, blocky font with a white outline, and 'EYE' is in a similar font but with a red-to-white gradient. Below this, 'ON LLA' is written in a smaller, blue, blocky font with a white outline. The overall style is reminiscent of mid-20th-century movie posters.

ACADEMY

Ron Tavor

Dearest Ron,
You're such a dear and
wonderful friend.
You've made my first year in Symphonic Band
all worth it. Keep up the great job at school.

Wasn't it a fun year?
I thought so.

Have a wonderful summer. See ya
in 10th grade.

Love,
Lizl

P.S. Keep Smiling!

Dear Ron,
Hi! Sorry this is taking so long.
Hasn't this year it was great. I mean I can still just believe it's over. Well, I don't hardly about you, but I'm glad and know that summer's finally here.
So how did you fare through English and algebra? I presume great! This summer I'll probably see you or a church party or something, huh? That's one thing to forward to besides summer's blessed relaxation! See ya and sign another annual! See ya around.

P.S. "88"
Rules!

Trenz,
Anita Pepinger

My online boy!

If my favorite color was red, I ~~was~~ <sup>margin?</sup> fault! I <sup>like</sup> would be sooo jealous of you! But, red isn't my favorite color, so I'm not jealous.

When I was in 8th grade, I thought that year was the best I ever had, but this year is definitely the best. Don't you agree? Yup!!! It sure was.

Well, I hope you have a super, duper summer! Maybe I'll see you when I visit Janny & Jackie!
'Bye! Love & hugs,
Heidi

EYE ON US

Lights! Camera! Action! The setting is the campus of Loma Linda Academy; we're shooting scenes of academy life . . . the totally unpredictable stars of the show — that's us, the students. Though the script has us focusing on cramming knowledgeable matter into our cranial cavities and making mad rushes from class to class, that's not all we do to occupy ourselves. Between take 1 and take 2 there is laughter, chatter, friendly encouragement, and lengthy discussions on assignments and undone assignments. Yet, throughout the production we stand united by friends, class, and school. Meanwhile, our directors stand by to remind us that this is real life. We're getting our act together.

1. RUB A DUB DUB 3 MEN IN A BUG — Klyde's bright orange beetle strikes again.
2. ANIMAL BEHAVIOR — Evolution predicts the next phase of human development will be living in the trees.
3. I DON'T WALK, I STRUT' — Even though Mike is loaded down, he still manages to be dignified.
4. "TOM" — Listen to me this is no laughing matter.

1. YOU NEED ALL THE PROTECTION YOU CAN GET AT THIS SCHOOL! — Keith seems to be prepared.
2. COVER FOR THE NEW SEARS CATALOG??? — No, just Curt strolling to his next class.
3. I NEVER KNEW WOOL GREW ON PIGS! — Teresa disguises herself as a towel.
4. HEADS TURN AS A TRENDY FLUORESCENT FLASHES BY — but Sandy refuses to acknowledge her audience.

EYE ON FASHION

And how many batteries does it take to light up that outfit? Sound strange? Not really, that is if you're wearing fluorescent yellow. How about following the trend of wearing sunglasses? You may agree this is the in thing to do as results are quite impressive, but at night? Who knows! While we don't quite measure up in standard to the fashion capital of the world, we certainly sport our own fashion plate. The whirl of shopping catches up so many. As for the next incoming fad . . . your guess is as good as mine!

5

1. IS THAT AN A OR F? — Albert seeks the help of friends in finding out his Consumer and Family grade.
2. JAIL-BIRDS OR NEW SCHOOL UNIFORMS? — With Chanda and Mike, stripes are definitely in!

4. SCHOOL'S OUT, TEACHER LET THE FOOLS OUT — (Just kidding Arnie!)
5. YOU TOUCHA MY GLASSES, I BREAKA YOU FACE — Larry chooses the casual look.

EYE ON RECREATION

Who is faster than a speeding raquetball, can leap tall "horses" in a single bound, and is able to stop an opposing team with quick wit and skill? Superman? In a way, yes — it is a student at LLA who is taking P.E., raquetball, weight training, gymnastics, or varsity classes. Forbid the thought of students bent over books all day! Recreation is an important part of school life in helping students become well-rounded "super" young men and women. So jump into your sweats, grab a ball and head for the field.

1. SUPERGLUE — Penina gets an all time high out of gymnastics.

2. DREAMS — Future glory inspires many.

3. GRAVITY STRIKES AGAIN — Necessity is the mother of this one-handed handstand.

4. HUTT, HUTT, HIKE — Varsity makes men out of boys.

1. ANCIENT CHINESE TORTURE — Holler when it hurts!
2. GO FOR IT — Go, go, get 'em, get 'em, and when you get 'em, get 'em GOOD!
3. THE KILLER STRETCH — Jane Fonda, eat your heart out!
4. HEADS WE RUN, TAILS WE PASS — Game strategy is purely scientific, of course!

YE ON BEHAVIOR

Are you frequently late to 5th period? Is your favorite expression "Test??? What test?!"? Do your books have an incurable magnetism for your locker instead of your body when you attend class? Have you ever been convicted of the violent crime — locker abuse? How many times has your deafening whisper attracted the admonishing presence of the librarian? Do you advertise your truancy by yelling down the halls during class? Is the amount of time it takes you to do a book report inversely proportional to the number of hours until the deadline? If you have answered "no" to more than one of these, we strongly suggest that you seek the professional guidance of our behavioral analyst. You are not a normal LLA student.

4

1. LADY'S MAN — So many women, so little time!
2. I CAN'T TAKE IT ANY MORE — It's a jungle out there!
3. MAYBE DARWIN WAS RIGHT — Richard and Greg act like missing links to evolution.
4. TELL ME IT'S NOT SO — You saw him with who? Where? When?

1. STOCK MARKET CRASH — Rodney's life investments in cookie cutters go down the drain.
2. STRIP TEASE — Nate practices for his act at Chippen-dales.
3. HIT MAN — You pay the price, I mow 'em over!
4. OK, WHAT ARE YOU UP TO? — Never trust a grinning brunette?
5. TARZAN SYNDROME — Watch out gals for these swinging sophomores!

1. EVEN MIGHTY MOUSE MUST SLEEP — Wayne takes a "time out" from his exhausting Senior schedule to cat nap.
2. AWESTRUCK — Mike stares at Ken's immovable hair with fascination and envy.
3. THE NOSE KNOWS — This girl has found her lunch that mysteriously disappeared last week.
4. IT'S NOT JUST FOR TA ANYMORE — Joanne is really excited about this new caffeine free, sugar free, calorie free, taste free drink.

EYE ON PEOPLE

It's preposterous to imagine LLA without people. Noiseless empty halls . . . colorless, unoccupied classrooms . . . wild, spontaneous parties never held . . . creative, ingenious tardy excuses never given . . . friendships never shared . . . Our school is our people! It takes all kinds, and we have what it takes!

2

1. A PICTURE OF ME?? — Wilson is moved to tears by this touching moment.
2. GOOD YEAR BLIMP — We had quite a time sneaking the blimp into the library for this magnificent aerial shot.
3. DON'T LOOK NOW — She's right behind you!
4. IT'S JUST A JOKE, RIGHT? — Jill doesn't know whether to believe the person who just informed her that the history test was yesterday.
5. THIS IS A FRAME-UP! Doug looks like the cat who swallowed the canary!

1. DECISIONS, DECISIONS, Hmm . . . — Maybe I should put back the skittles.
2. WHERE'S THE BEEF? — Klyde examines his vegeburger searching for the real thing.
3. A DISTINCTIVE TASTE — Justin savors this familiar flavor of ice cream.
4. DOUBLE TROUBLE — And who does the second one go to??
5. CHOCOHOLIC'S HEAVEN — Dish me a double portion.

1. MM MM GOOD — Scott is tantalized with the tasty morsels in the bag.
2. DANCING? — Diane and Micheline laugh it up with their big sticks.
3. CRISP AND CLEAN, NO CAFFEINE — Meet Chip Martin, the new anchor man for 7-up commercials.
4. WHAT'S IN IT? — Hydroxophyl Methacellulose, Polysorbate . . .

2

EYE ON CUISINE

Same place? Same thing? No, not the same place, unless you're a carless freshman stuck scrounging for something palatable at the all time favorite fast food joint, the Loma Linda Dairy. Or . . . you can take the mortal risk — brown bag it.

Mother's food is guaranteed to be nutritious, but also likely to be sugarless and flavorless. The elite upper classmen prefer to dine elsewhere. Such prestigious eateries as Del Taco, McDonalds, and Angelos are engulfed daily by hordes of growling stomachs but whatever you do, don't be a Creature of Habit. OK Lovie? Ok Dovie?

1. I WISH THEY ALL COULD BE CALIFORNIA GIRLS — Mike whistles at the scenery.
2. DISSECT FRESHMEN? — You've got to be kidding
3. COME BACK HERE — Lorene feels left in the dust.
4. "OH, YOU WOULDN'T" — That devious act is far above your angelic mind!
5. MOI? — Joepet puts on his most innocent expression.

EYE ON FACES

Face it — the first thing you notice is a face. A flashy smile warms you through, while an icy stare chills you to the bone. A cocked eyebrow displays mischief in the works; frustration is shown by brows closely knit together. The eyes tell it all — approval, anger, fear, joy — they are mirrors of inner moods. So SMILE! It improves your face value!

1. THE EYES HAVE IT — Blue eyes speak for themselves.
2. OH YEAH! — Make my day!
3. I WANT MY FIRST CRUSH TO LAST! — Well, at least through 5th period.
4. LITTLE BLACK BOOK? — Shelly prefers a large edition.
5. THIS JUST ISN'T MY DAY! — First tests, quizzes, and now you!

Eye On Ms. Dietrich

We move the spotlight now to a teacher who has demanded performance from each of us.

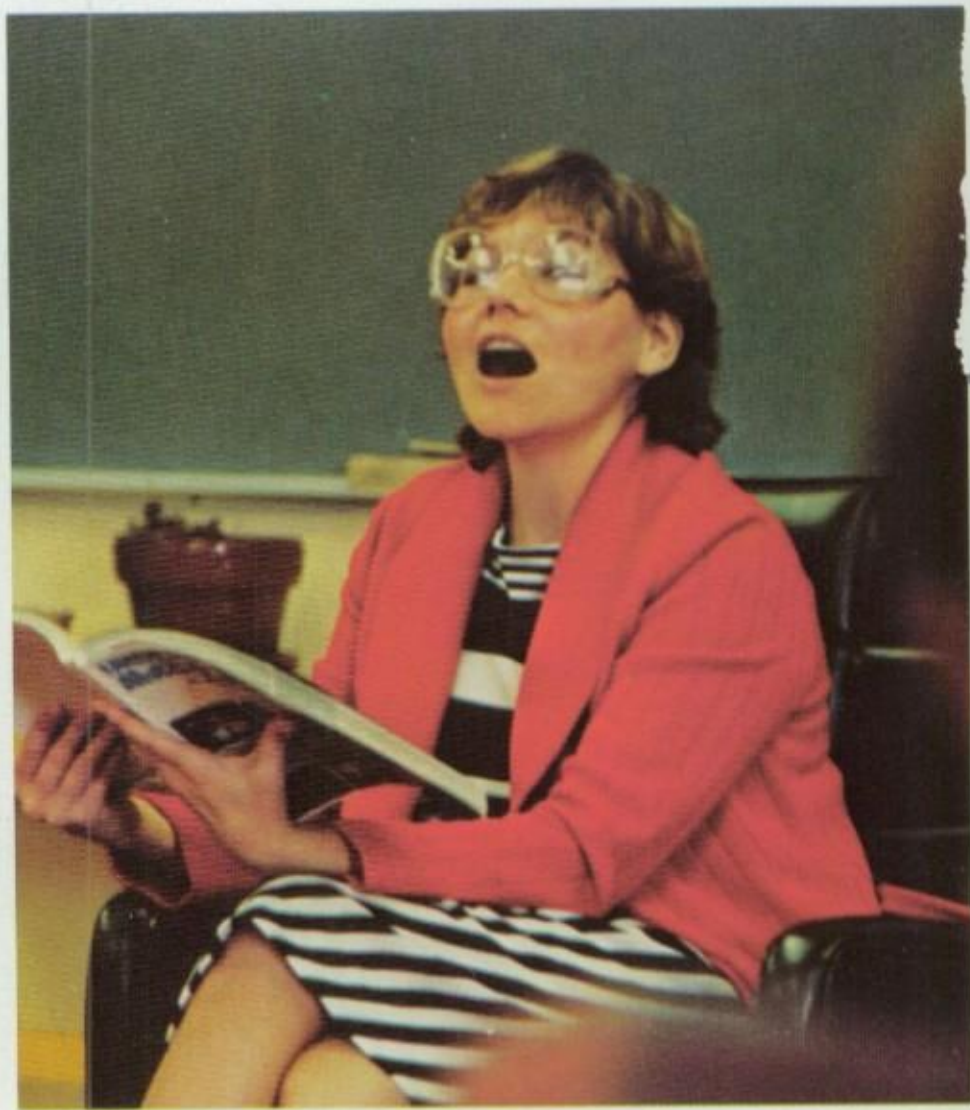

"20/30? But Ms. Dietrich, I worked (sort of) and I did my best (well, almost) . . . better? Try again? Improve it?"

"28/30! You were right — this is quality work — I'm proud of it! It took a lot more time, but the results are worth it!"

"But I am speaking up! And I can't help it if my back is to the audience. I'm just not the kind of person to wave my arms around like you do, either . . . they're more comfortable crossed right in front of me."

"Do you hear that applause? They loved our performance! I projected my voice, enunciated my words, flung myself into my character . . . what a difference! What an improvement!"

For the growth you've encouraged in us and so much more, Ms. Dietrich, we love you. So stay tuned, because we produced this show especially for you!

I'm not going to say that I "hope" you enjoy this annual, because I know it succeeds in putting your Eye on LLA. I wanted this book to be truly unique, to break tradition, but the big question was how to create the masterpiece we had in mind. We've done our best and now it's your turn. Take the time to discover all that's in your 1985 Lomasphere. Read the copy, explore the pictures of you and your friends, and make the book come alive with all the character we've put into it. To the Seniors I say, "1985 is your year, live it and relive it."

I want also to give my greatest thanks to all the staff whose devotion and sense of humor made this book what it is. "Guys, it's been fun and it's been real . . ." My special thanks goes to Cheri Elder for not only being there till the end, (regardless of Prince) but also for being my friend. Now for some Good News and some Bad News. The GOOD NEWS is that you hold in your hands the masterpiece, the 1985 Lomasphere. The BAD NEWS is I'm all out of good news.

Love ya all,

Carlyn Jones

EYE ON FRESHMEN FLUB-UPS

When, in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for freshmen to dissolve the bonds which have connected them with the rest of Loma Linda Academy, and to assume, among the powers of earth, the separate and equal station to which the laws of nature entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation . . .

"That should keep my chin warm."

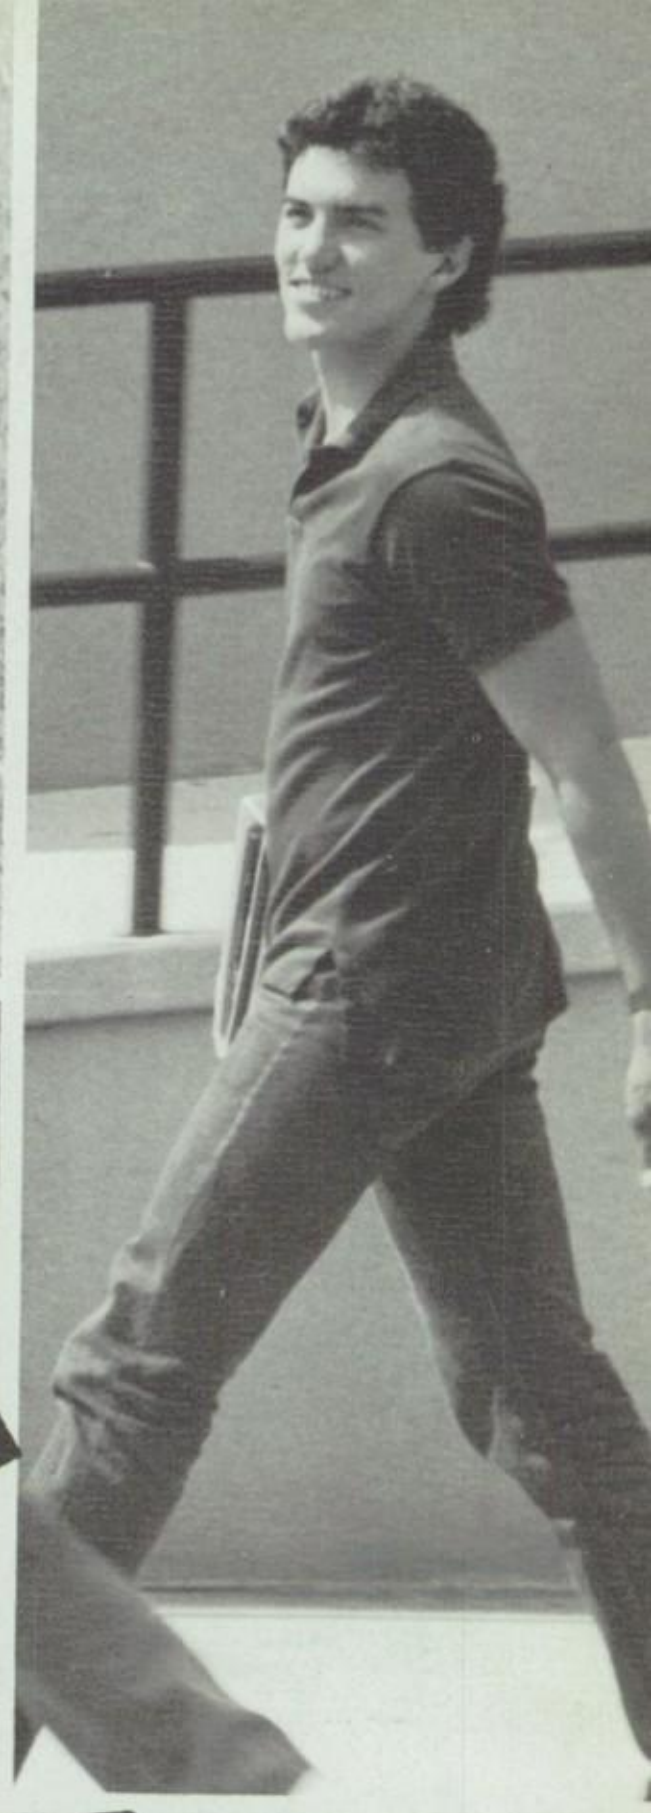

"Heads or tails?"

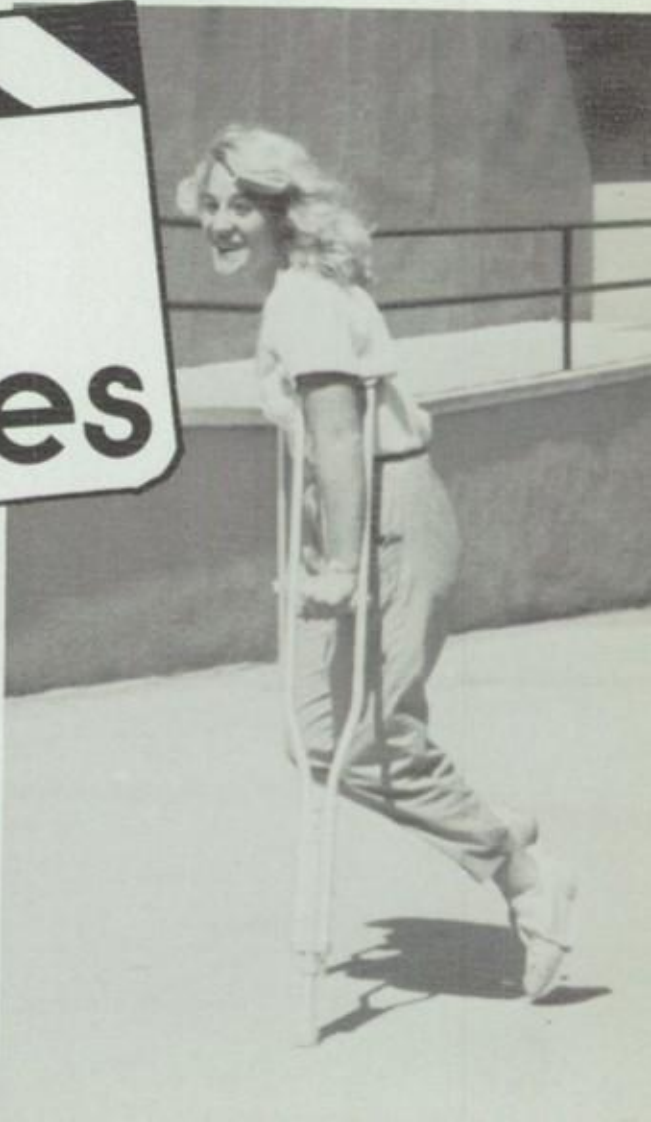

"Kiss me, toad, I'll make you a princess."

We hold these truths to be self-evident: that all sophomores are equal, that they are endowed with certain unalienable absurdities, that among these are life, liberty, and the pursuit of trivia.

"S H A R K!"

The End (of the game, of course)

"I can't believe I ate the WHOLE thing!"

Speaking as the Representative of the JUNIOR class, I feel we have begun to realize that our special year is almost here. It's been a lot of work, but we're ready to take on the challenge of being seniors. We are all successfully bridging the gap between adolescence and young adulthood. My congratulations goes to The Class of '86" for being the Class with CLASS.

Eye on Junior Junk

And for the support of this class of 1986, we mutually pledge to each other our lives, our nonexistent fortunes, and our honor.

"Are we overdressed for the occasion?"

Attack of the killer chemist!

Uh, Klyde, "REACH FOR THE SKY" is just a figure of speech.

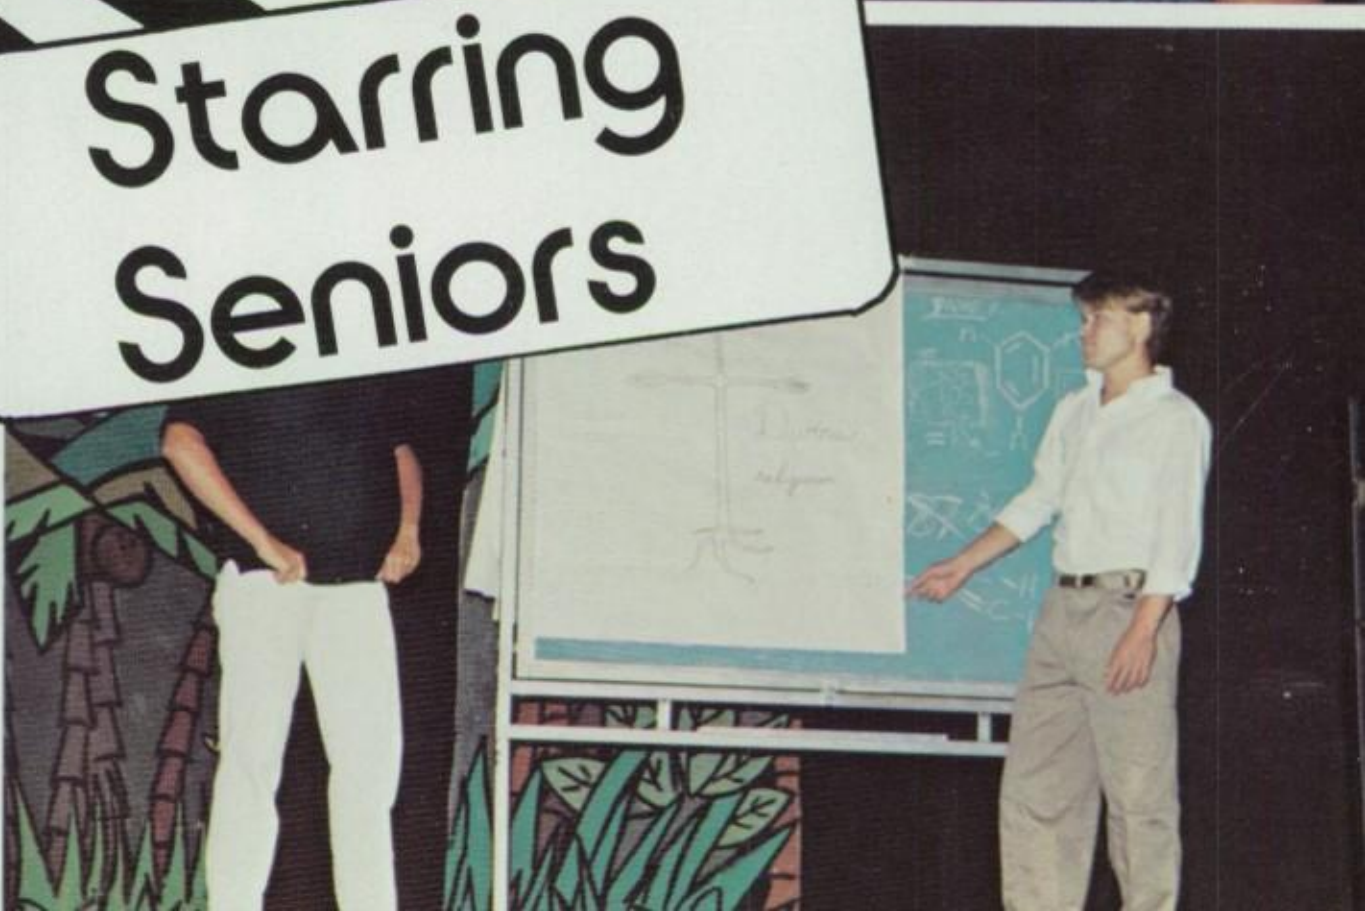

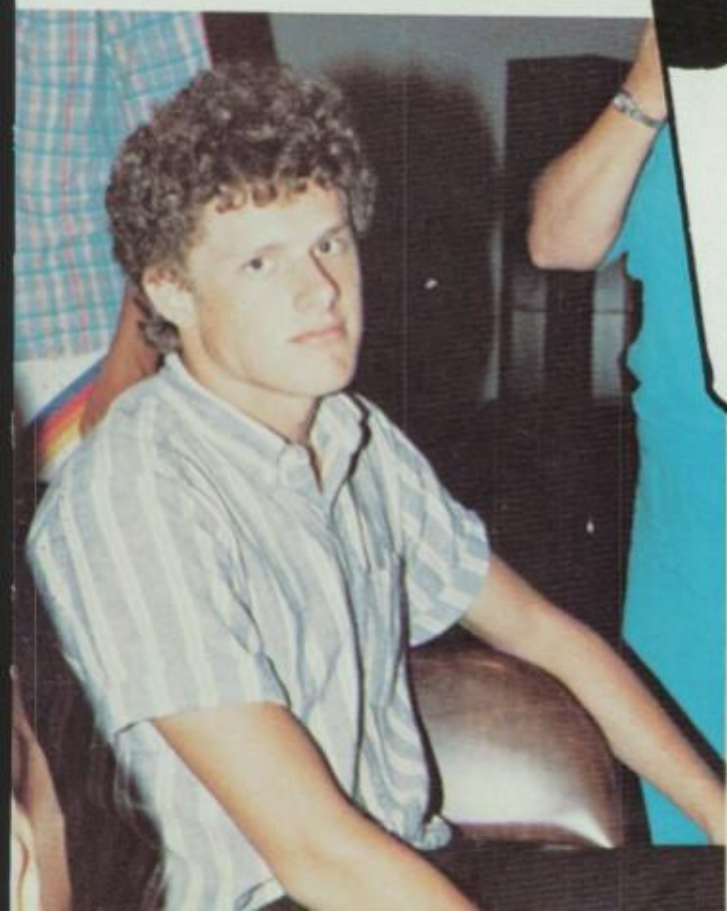

They've gone bananas.

The pressures of school are enough to make anyone go CRAZY!

To the very special senior class of 1985.

Look up and reach for the stars. You'll never know how far you can go until you stretch yourself. That is my challenge to all of you. May God bless each one in all of life's journeys.

Keep looking up —

Senior Splash

"Havasu" — say that one word to the Seniors who went on the river trip — a dreamy look of remembrance crosses their faces and they begin to tell you anecdotes of three glorious days spent in paradise. The thrill of speeding over foaming water, slicing the wake with ski blades . . . basking in the sun, thoughts of homework and school obliterated from consciousness . . . wandering in and out of parties at 2:00 a.m. . . . chatting on the dock in the moonlight . . . strengthening existing bonds of friendship and discovering new ones . . . sadly, wearily packing up and trivially pursuing our way home . . .

Havasu — it was over so quickly. But the friends, spirit, and memories remain with them forever!

NOTHING IS IMPOSSIBLE

The future is yours, it belongs to you,
And with Faith in God
and in Yourself, too,
No hill's too high,
no mountain's too tall,
For with Faith in the Lord
you can conquer them all -
And all that you wish for that is honest and true
The Lord will certainly give to you,
Not always the way you most desire
But Always He gives what you most require -
So accept what He sends,
be it "Bitter or Sweet,"
For God Knows Best
what makes life complete,
And great is your gladness
and rich your reward
When you learn to accept the will of the Lord.
